Understand the reasoning

Review the selected answer, see the correct choice and read why it is correct. Explanations help your child revisit mistakes.

Not quite

Incorrect. Tadpoles hatch from the eggs but they live in water, not on land.

The answer is option 4. Correct. The jelly mass is frog spawn (eggs). Tadpoles hatch from the eggs and live in water, where they swim using their tails.

A control set-up provides a basis for comparison, which helps the observer find out whether the variable being tested (the changed variable) caused the observed change.

PERSONALISED WRITTEN FEEDBACK

See the feedback your child receives.

Mistakes

On occasion, he is not specific enough in his explanation. While this does not always result in loss of marks, it may if clarity is compromised. In question 33b, it would have been better to specify that the black spots are on the body of the animal. In question 34cii, he should specify that it is the flower which had its anthers removed that should bear fruit.

In question 32c, do take note that the young plants and parent plant will not compete for food as plants make their own food. They also do not compete for warmth. The 4 things they compete for will be water, nutrients, light and space.

Next step

Keep up the good work!

We aim to return marked work within 72 hours of the cutoff.

PLEASANT LEARNING ENVIRONMENTS

Small classes.
Active engagement.

12 onsite (physical)
Regular cap

14 online (ClassIn)
Regular cap

Approved replacement and trial students are additional to this regular cap, so attendance may be slightly higher. Prior approval, available space and safe, effective teaching are required. Maximum one trial student per session.

Interactive online learning via ClassIn

Digital sketchpads, polls, timers and student-response tools make students' thinking visible during a structured live lesson. Your child can participate actively while learning from home. Even if your child is shy, they will be encouraged or given the chance to read questions for the class or prompted to answer simple questions to help keep them engaged.

Missed a lesson? We've got you covered.

One approved replacement covering the same numbered lesson may be arranged for a personal absence, subject to availability and prior confirmation. Online-to-onsite replacements cost $10 extra; other combinations have no additional charge. Personal-absence fees are non-refundable.

Replay Past Online Lessons

Regularly enrolled students can access available corresponding online lesson recordings. Onsite lessons are not routinely recorded for replay.

The Bestminds Learning Pack (BLP) includes access to past lesson recordings. We provide this to help those who miss our earlier lessons to catch up on their own. Access ends at different dates for different levels:
For P5: until 31 December of the same academic year.
For P6: until the end of their PSLE Science paper day.
Access ends earlier on withdrawal or termination. Trial students who do not enrol later receive no replay access. Personal revision only: do not download, record or share the recordings.

Registration and Learning Pack fees are normally non-refundable, subject to Handbook exceptions. If no suitable class can be offered before regular lessons start, choose a full enrolment refund or the next available class. Attended trial fees are excluded.

Withdrawal and refunds

Give at least 14 calendar days' written notice. Scheduled lessons during notice count as used, attended or not. For parent-requested withdrawal, the refund is prepaid lesson fees paid minus used lessons charged at the undiscounted rates applicable when purchased. For special circumstances, discuss privately with Mr Daniel to ask for a waiver of the notice period.

The minimum refund is zero, with no additional payment obligation. Refunds are paid within 7 working days after effective withdrawal, without an administrative deduction. Separate rules cover Academy termination and qualifying material service reductions.

Changes and waitlists

Permanent timeslot or mode changes require availability and written confirmation; fee differences apply from the first changed lesson and are adjusted in the next payment cycle. Registration and Learning Pack fees are unaffected. Joining our waitlists does not guarantee a seat.
